

At "la Caixa" Welfare Projects, we work to give people more opportunities, to improve the most difficult personal challenges, to fill them with possibilities and to cover the needs of those facing these obstacles.

"la Caixa", through its Welfare Projects, devotes huge resources to fighting poverty and social marginalisation, to encouraging integration into work, to working for health prevention and care, to enabling Older People to enjoy this stage of their lives, to promoting inter-cultural harmony, to supporting education and research, to bringing culture to every kind of public, to protecting the environment and to fomenting volunteer work.

And we will continue with our day-to-day commitment to society, helping to write better pages in the book of people's lives, especially those who most need support.

Thanks to people like you, José Miguel has the chance to continue studying and dream of becoming a footballer. Miguel Ángel can at last feel like he's one of the bunch, Ramón is happy despite being in hospital and Lori can advise many families.

Through "la Caixa" Welfare Projects, we assist Ruben to start living his own life and Carmen to feel useful again.

Together, with Edgar, we make sure that the future of thousands of people does not just depend on the place they were born and that Lin does not feel like just another foreigner, but rather a friend with another culture.

Because of Carlos' work, we can continue to enjoy the woods and through Esther we can travel to an imaginary world.

Thanks to people like you and people like Alfons, we are building a world with more opportunities for people.
